LCDR Brett Maycock
JOAG Voting Member
2009-2012

JOAG Vice Chair
COA Liaison
HS PAC Liaison

This is my fourth year as a JOAG voting member. I currently serve as the Vice Chair of JOAG and liaison to the Commissioned Officers Association, Board of Directors. For the last three years, I have served as the Chair, of the Inter-Services Collaboration Committee and the liaison to the Health Services Professional Advisory Committee.

I am currently assigned to the Department of Homeland Security, Office of Health Affairs as a liaison to the Federal Emergency Management Agency, in Washington, DC.

I received a Master of Homeland Security, in Public Health Preparedness from Pennsylvania State University, Hershey Medical School, in 2010 and a Master of Health Policy and Administration from Washington State University, in 2003. I began my career in the United States Navy, gaining a commission as a healthcare administrator in 2003. In 2006, I completed an inter-service transfer into the U.S. Public Health Service, where I was assigned to the California Area Indian Health Service, in Sacramento, California.

I look forward to working with all of you this operational year.
