

MINORITY OFFICERS LIAISON COUNCIL

2010 MOLC HEALTH DISPARITIES SYMPOSIUM SPEAKER BIOS

*****

Karen Kar-Yee, M.H.S.
LT, USPHS
Lead Staff, Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality

Lieutenant Karen Ho is the Lead Staff for the National Healthcare Disparities Report (NHDR) in the Center for Quality Improvement and Patient Safety research team at the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ). She has been a commissioned corps officer for the United States Public Health Services since 2009. She has been involved in the production of the National Healthcare Quality Reports, the National Healthcare Disparities Reports, and the AHRQ State Snapshots since 2003. Currently, she is also the project officer for the Medicare Patient Safety Monitoring System (MPSMS) which provides information to track patient safety events abstracted from medical claims data. She is the co-author of the AHRQ Asthma Care Quality Improvement Resource Guide and Workbook for State Action. Lieutenant Ho received her M.H.S. in Health Policy at the Johns Hopkins School of Public Health and B.A. at University of California, Berkeley.

*****