

Job Title:

NAVY: Psychiatrist -Naval Hospital, Jacksonville, FL (O-6 billet, Non-Supervisory)

Job Description:

Provide care and clinical supervision for a wide range of patient psychiatric presentations, ages, conditions and complexity including treatment for severely mentally disturbed patients that can no longer function in the military or community nor maintain a vocation, and patients with acute psychiatric problems or chronic complicated conditions that may require more complex care. Provide treatment services in any capacity including, but not limited to inpatient services, consultation liaison services, partial hospitalization or day programs, emergency psychiatric services, and outpatient services, including but not limited to specialty clinics (e.g. PTSD/TBI) or special populations. Examines and conducts thorough evaluations of presenting patients including integration of laboratory, radiological and clinical findings prescribing appropriate pharmacological and psychotherapeutic treatment or referring patient to appropriate specialty clinics. Make fitness for duty and other administrative determinations on active duty members completing appropriate paperwork for such (e.g. limited duty forms, medical evaluation boards, and security clearance evaluations). Render clinic and internal patient care consultative opinions to other physicians and auxiliary health personnel in the areas of expertise. Provide professional consultation, supervision and collaborative medical support to other professional staff such as nurses, corpsmen, psychologists, medical students, interns, residents and other healthcare providers within the hospital and across other mental health clinics, such as SARP. Provide direct expert patient care to patients in the MH Department, document care using an electronic record or other authorized documentation method with timely completion and return to referring providers. Maintain health/clinical records in accordance with current regulations and standards. Monitor treatment effectiveness through evidence based medicine and alter course of treatment as needed through individualized treatment plans (90%)

Participates with supervisor in departmental and hospital performance improvement activities and makes recommendations on improvement of work methods, organizational features and the restructuring of positions. Participates, supports and assumes primary responsibility for specified assignments in quality improvement activities in the Mental Health Department. (5%)

Performs other duties as assigned. (5%)

Work is performed in an outpatient clinic setting with consultation to inpatients at the main hospital. Travel to Branch Health Clinics may be required for education and consultative services. On-call duty and evening/weekend/holiday shifts may be required.

Maintains all basic readiness standards as required by the U.S. Public Health Service. Requires a Secret clearance.

PHS officers assigned under this Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) must remain available for PHS deployments. Under this MOA, PHS officers are not authorized to deploy with the military.

Requirements:

License: A Doctor of Medicine (M.D.) or Doctor of Osteopathy (O.D.) degree and Board certification from American Board of Psychiatry and neurology or American Osteopathic, Board of Psychiatry and Neurology. A current, unrestricted, and valid license to practice medicine from a U.S. State (as defined in 42 USC 201 (f)) is required.

Additional Requirements:

Initial assignment term is a 3-year obligation.

Location Description:

2080 Child Street
Jacksonville FL 32214

Contact Information:

To apply, please e-mail your CV, cover letter, and last 3 COERs to dodphsph@hhs.gov

The cover letter should reference this specific job announcement, state your date of availability, introduce yourself, and provide your contact information to include name, phone, and e-mail address.